

Glendale Community College Captures 1967 JUCO Cross Country Title

Brevard College Finishes in Second Place

Bob Gray of Brevard Gains Individual Honors

Glendale Community College from Phoenix, Arizona, broke the two-year reign of Ricks College to capture the 1967 National Junior College Athletic Association Cross Country title. Glendale compiled a team score of 64 points to edge Brevard College of North Carolina by a one-point margin. Vincennes University Junior College of Indiana finished in third place, duplicating their 1966 performance. Allen County Community Junior College from Kansas was fourth and Cobleskill Agricultural and Technical College from upstate New York finished in fifth place.

Bob Gray, Brevard College, Brevard, N.C., breaks the tape to win the ninth annual NJCAA Cross Country run at Farmingdale, N. Y.

Bob Gray of the Brevard College team captured individual honors as he raced over the State University of New York at Farmingdale course in 15 minutes, 26.4 seconds to establish a new course record. The existing course record was 15:37. Dave Russell, also of Brevard College, also broke the existing course record with a time of 15:31, to finish in second place. Bob Sauerissig of Allen County Community Junior College was third, Scott Gidding and Dave Palmer, both of Glendale Community College, finished fourth and fifth, respectively.
