

State University of New York at Cobleskill Captures 1968 JUCO Cross Country Title

HASKELL INSTITUTE FINISHES IN SECOND PLACE

Bob Gray of Brevard Repeats as Individual Champion

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK AT COBLESKILL
1968 NJCAA Cross Country Champions

The State University of New York at Cobleskill out-raced twenty-one other two-year colleges to win the 1968 National Junior College Athletic Association Cross Country title. The 1968 title marked the second time that the upstate New York team had captured the team title since the meet was initiated in 1959. The race was run over the three-mile Haskell Institute course in Lawrence, Kansas. Cobleskill compiled a team score of 101 points in taking top team honors. The host college, Haskell Institute, finished second with 124 points, Mt. Hood Community College from Oregon was third with 158 points, Henry Ford Community College from Michigan was fourth with 160 points, and Butler County Community College from Kansas rounded out the top five with 183 points.

Bob Gray, Brevard College, Brevard, N.C., breaks the tape to win the tenth annual NJCAA Cross Country Run at Lawrence, Kansas.

Montgomery Junior College of Rothville, Maryland, by about 35 yards. All told, 173 runners finished the race which was run in 45-degree temperatures.
