

Southwestern Michigan College Repeats as NJCAA Cross Country Champions

Joe Ofsansky of Southwestern Michigan Wins Individual Title

Joe Ofsansky of Southwestern Michigan College, Dowagiac, Michigan, won the NJCAA Cross Country Championship race at Rochester, Minnesota, in the time of 24:26.4, over the Eastwood Golf Course 5-mile layout. Art Redhair of Central Arizona College was second in the time of 24:28, with Robin Holland of Allegheny CCAC third. It was a three man race from the first mile mark on. Allegheny's Robin Holland led at the mile in 4:17 with Ofsansky and Redhair within ten yards. By the two mile mark they were all alone trading the lead for the next two miles. At the four mile mark they had over 200 yards on the rest of the field. Then with about 180 yards left, Ofsansky took over for good and finished strong to win with distance to spare.

Southwestern Michigan College took the team title with 39 points, followed by Central Arizona College and Allegheny CCAC.

The race was hosted by Rochester Community College of Rochester, Minnesota.
